Please Wear a Nametag

While God surely knows your name, the same cannot be said for the rest of us.

Please pick up your nametag in Goodwin Hall or at the Sigourney Street entrance. Wear it proudly so everybody knows your name. If you do not have a nametag, write your name on a temporary nametag and place it in the basket on the nametag table. A permanent nametag will be made for you and waiting for you in Goodwin Hall.

Nursery care for children under age 3 is offered in the nursery, now located in the tower room which is near the main church entrance on Sigourney Street, from 9:00 – 11:30 a.m.

Capital Campaign Kick-Off Celebration Today!!!

Evensong to Mark All Saints Day

The choirs of Trinity Church will offer a 7:00 p.m. service of Evensong to be held at Trinity on All Saints Day, Thursday, November 1. Ralph Vaughan Williams’ setting of the evening canticles, the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis, will be featured in addition to Edgar Bainton’s anthem “And I saw a new heaven,” a beautiful setting of Revelation 21:1-4, particularly appropriate for All Saints Day.
