WELCOME – THE REV. NORMAN M. MACLEOD

HYMN: No. 427 When morning gilds the skies

Laudes Domini

1 When morn - ing gilds the skies, my heart, a - wak - ing, cries,
 2 When mirth for mu - sic longs, this is my song of songs:
 3 No love - lier an - ti - phon in all high heaven is known
 4 Ye na - tions of man - kind, in this your con - cord find:
 5 Sing, suns and stars of space, sing, ye that see his face,

1 may Je - sus Christ be praised! When eve - ning sha - dows fall,
 2 may Je - sus Christ be praised! God's ho - ly house of prayer
 3 than, Je - sus Christ be praised! There to the e - ter - nal Word
 4 may Je - sus Christ be praised! Let all the earth a - round
 5 sing, Je - sus Christ be praised! God's whole cre - a - tion o'er,

1 this rings my cur - few call, may Je - sus Christ be praised!
 2 hath none that can com - pare with: Je - sus Christ be praised!
 3 the e - ter - nal psalm is heard: may Je - sus Christ be praised!
 4 ring joy - ous with the sound: may Je - sus Christ be praised!
 5 both now and ev - er - more shall Je - sus Christ be praised!

Officiant
 People

Alleluia! Christ is risen.
 The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

THE INVITATORY AND PSALTER

Officiant Lord, open our lips;
All And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen. Alleluia!

PASCHA NOSTRUM

Suliman Foster: Alleluia.
Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us; *
therefore let us keep the feast,
Not with old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, *
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. Alleluia.

Elizabeth Rousseau: Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; *
death no longer has dominion over him.
The death that he died, he died to sin, once for all; *
but the life he lives, he lives to God.
So also consider yourselves dead to sin, *
and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord. Alleluia.

Zechariah Stephens: Christ has been raised from the dead, *
the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.
For since by a man came death, *
by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead.
For as in Adam all die, *
so in Christ shall all be made alive. Alleluia.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

FIRST LESSON: ACTS 17: 22-31

Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, “Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, ‘To an unknown god.’ What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For ‘In him we live and move and have our being’; as even some of your own poets have said,

‘For we too are his offspring.’

Since we are God’s offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.”

CANTICLE 16 S248 Song of Zechariah

Antiphon

In the ten - der com - pas - sion of our God
the dawn from on high shall break up - on us.

1. Bless - ed be the Lord, the God of Is - ra - el; he has come to his peo - ple and set them free. 2. He has raised up for us a mighty sa - vior, born of the house of his ser - vant Da - vid.

3. Through his holy prophets he promised of old, that he would save us from our en - e - mies, from the hands of all who hate us.

4. He prom - ised to show mercy to our fa - thers and to remember his ho - ly cov - e - nant. 5. This was the oath he swore to our father
A - bra - ham, to set us free from the hands of our en - e - mies,

6. Free to worship him with - out fear, holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life. 7.You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to pre - pare his way, 8.To give his people knowledge of sal - va - tion by the for - give - ness of their sins.

9.In the tender compassion of our God the dawn from on high shall break up - on us, 10.To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, and to guide our feet in - to the way of peace. [Ant.]
(Gloria Patri may be omitted)
11.Glo - ry to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spi - rit:
12. As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ev - er. A-men. [Ant.]

SECOND LESSON JOHN 14: 15-21

Jesus said, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

"I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.

LITANY FOR YOUTH

As we pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs, we pray especially, dear Lord, for young people, for those who know You and for those who don't, for those with whom You have blessed our church community and for those not yet a part of Your family. Let us pray to the Lord . . .

That our teens and their friends may know Your love, Your grace, and Your mercy;
That they may be equipped to live whole and hopeful lives;

That they may be encouraged and cared for;
That their lives may be filled with the love of family, friends, neighbors, teachers, and others who genuinely care about what is best for them.

Cause their families to be strong, supportive, caring, and loving.
And bless them with mentors and guides who help them negotiate the challenges of life.

Lord, bless the young people in this faith community with an abundant measure of Your grace and equip us as church to be a faithful conduit of Your grace and love to them:
That they may be faith-filled and faithful by the power of Your Spirit;
That they may live each day blessed and renewed in the assurance of their baptism;

That they may know Your truth and the freedom that comes with it;
That they may grow in Your Word and in its power for life and salvation;

That these young people may be equipped in sharing and caring for each other within this congregation and out in the wider community;
Bless them in their love for each other in Christ and through them, cause them to be a blessing with others. AMEN

Silence for reflection.

Officiant Let us affirm our faith together in the words of the Apostles' Creed.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

BCP p. 96

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth;
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE PRAYERS

Officiant The Lord be with you.
All And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Silence

All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Officiant O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Officiant God our Father, you see your children growing up in an unsteady and confusing world: Show them that your ways give more life than the ways of the world, and that following you is better than chasing after selfish goals. Help them to take failure, not as a measure of their worth, but as a chance for a new start. Give them strength to hold their faith in you, and to keep alive their joy in your creation; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Officiant Almighty God, whose Son had nowhere to lay his head: Grant that those who live alone may not be lonely in their solitude, but that, following in his steps, they may find fulfillment in loving you and their neighbors; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

PRAYER FOR MISSION

Officiant O God, you have made of one blood all the peoples of the earth, and sent your blessed Son to preach peace to those who are far off and to those who are near: Grant that people everywhere may seek after you and find you; bring the nations into your fold; pour out your Spirit upon all flesh; and hasten the coming of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Prayers of the People Form IIIThe Leaders and People pray responsively

Leader: Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
 People: That we all may be one.

Leader: Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
 People: That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Leader: For this transition time at Trinity Church as we engage in the process of discernment leading to the call of a new rector, let us pray to the Lord.
 People : Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
 People: That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Leader: We pray for Donald, our President; Ned, our governor; for all governors and local leaders, for legislative assemblies and courts of law. We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

People: That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Leader: Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People: That our works may find favor in your sight.

Leader: For all who live and work in the communities of Central Connecticut, and every community, especially first responders, nurses, doctors, health assistants of every kind, food service workers, delivery people and cleaning staff, those who fulfill online orders and all those on the front lines in the struggle for health and safety during this pandemic. We pray for all those who are ill from the coronavirus, and all those on our parish prayer list. We pray for those who feel isolated, lonely and afraid. Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

People: That they may be delivered from their distress.

Leader: Give to the departed eternal rest, especially those who have died from COVID-19 infection.

People: Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Leader: We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy, especially Hyacinth Miller and Walter Drew.

People: May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Leader: Let us offer our prayers and thanksgivings, either silently or aloud.

Pause for Silence

Leader: We pray for children, youth, young adults, the middle aged, and the old. Dear God, have mercy and grant all people Your peace for Jesus 'sake. Amen.

People: We give thanks for all those striving to bring health and safety to your beloved children during this pandemic.

Leader: We give thanks for the technology which allows us to gather as a community while we must, out of love, be physically apart.

Leader: Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through the Spirit of the risen Christ.

All: Amen.

Silence

Officiant Let us join together in the words of the General Thanksgiving.

THE GENERAL THANKSGIVING

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made.
We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life;
but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;
for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.
And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise,
not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to your service,
and by walking before you
in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.

A PRAYER OF ST. CHRYSOSTOM

Officiant Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting.

All Amen.

Officiant: Let us bless the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Officiant: May the God of hope fill us with all joy and peace in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit.

TODAY is Youth Sunday

NEWS FROM OUR COLLEGE STUDENTS

A panel of college students who are parishioners of Trinity Church, will speak today after the Zoom service on Sunday, May 17th. The Rev. Frank Kirkpatrick will moderate the panel.

Join us to hear their perspectives on how the pandemic has changed this past spring semester for them.

How has distance learning been?

How does the current situation affect their plans?

The reality of each student's experience will be different, but in general the student of today is having a very different experience than what adult parishioners remember from their college days in decades gone by.

So many of us had the privilege of watching our young people grow up in the church; and will appreciate hearing how their stories are continuing out in the world.

If you are a college-age parishioner who might be interested in participating, come to the service on Sunday. There's a seat on the virtual panel!

LET US PRAY

In our Parish Cycle of Prayer we pray for Jolanda and Art Sribanpot; Kathy Steinwedell; Jennifer and Zechariah Stephens and the youth of the Parish of Trinity Church.

In our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer we pray for St. James', New Haven; St. John's, New Haven; St. Luke's, New Haven; Companions in Mission for Publishing & Communication; and Education for Ministry leaders and students.

In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer we pray for the Anglican Church of Korea The Most Revd Moses Nagjun Yoo - Primate of Korea and Bishop of Daejeon.

We pray for Mavis Bennett; Ginny Catanzaro; Gloria Cheyney and family; Tori Henry; Louise Krippenstapel; Carlene Lewis; Judy Miller; Margaret Moore; Valentina Moore; Al Pereira; Jim Register; Carolyn Rogers; Jo-Ann Sadosky; Al Shuckra; Diane, Helen Strassner; Lindsey Tengtenga; Alice Turcotte; Chris Weber; Richard Green (brother of Peter Green), Donald Bowens (Dianne Bowens-Waller), Joseph Negrelli Jr. and his family, Alan and Elena Rice, Brenda and Ronald Stahley (parents of Pamela Haddad), Bill McMunn and Richard Alan Garver, Diane Bowens-Waller, Bruce and Jane Tatge (parents of Anne Green), Polly Thomas, Rebecca Bourret, Peter Vreeland, Mark, Maritza, Percy Williamson, Amy Williams, Nancy Crandall, and those affected by mental and physical ailments, violence, natural disasters, and immigration and refugee policies, and their families; and for those who mourn for loved ones especially the Miller and Drew families.

We pray for all who have died, especially Hyacinth Miller and Walter Drew, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom. We pray for the repose of the souls of homicide victims in our city of Hartford, and beyond. We pray for those who will die this week, that they may meet their Lord in faith and hope. We pray for ourselves and for our departed loved ones, that rejoicing with them in God's kingdom where every tear is wiped away, we may as one family sing praise forever and ever.

A Prayer for this time of Pandemic

We pray guided by the words of the Psalm 46:

Compassionate, Comforting, Empowering God, you are our refuge and strength, a very present help in times of trouble. Amid the turmoil in the world, your love is steadfast and your strength never fails. We pray for those infected by COVID-19. We remember especially healthcare workers, first responders, persons in isolation and those who grieve the loss of their loved ones.

Your love is steadfast and your strength never fails.

Merciful God, grant order to the chaos of our racing minds and our pounding hearts. We remember especially those who are overwhelmed by the uncertainty, in particular those most vulnerable because of preexisting health conditions, and those who have lost, or will lose, their jobs.

Your love is steadfast and your strength never fails.

Compassionate God, grant courage and hope in the wake of this unprecedented path as we navigate and re-navigate our lives in this global crisis. We remember especially elected government officials, educational administrators, religious leaders and all policy-makers who are expected to offer decisive leadership in this time of crisis. We remember the medical scientists and researchers who are working assiduously to develop a vaccine or treatment.

Your love is steadfast and your strength never fails.

Empower us to be open to your unfolding purposes even as the waters around us roar and foam. Reassure us of your divine presence and peace with us, now and always.
Amen!

Prayer by Deonie Duncan, an ordained Baptist minister from Jamaica.

The Warden's Corner

Although the world has become unusually quiet since we began “Staying Home to Stay Safe” in Connecticut, a lot has been happening within the community that is Trinity Church. This week, the Recruitment Committee received the names of candidates who have applied to become our next Rector. This is an exciting development indeed, and the committee is hard at work learning about the candidates. The Committee will recommend several candidates for the Vestry to interview, and we hope to be ready to call a new Rector in July.

At the same time, Father Norman MacLeod, who has been serving as our Interim Priest- in-Charge since last September, announced that he will be retiring at the end of June. It is, of course, an understatement to say that we will miss him. He has been a faithful and wise leader to our parish in some very difficult times, and we are grateful for his support and his calm and loving direction these past months. Saying goodbye will be especially challenging since our farewells must be done virtually! We will find a way to celebrate his time among us and wish him Godspeed as he and Elizabeth take up their new life in Rhode Island.

Also this week, The Bishops and Canons leading the Episcopal Church in Connecticut issued protocols for parishes to follow during the first phase of Connecticut's reopening. The protocols call for each parish to take a gradual approach, opening operations in phases. We are encouraged not to gather physically for worship until at least the end of June, and to follow numerous strict guidelines when we do gather, including requiring all people to wear masks and gloves, and maintaining a 6-foot distance between us. Meeting those guidelines will be a challenge. The Vestry will recruit a committee of staff and parishioners to study the protocols and make recommendations about how and when to begin gathering in person.

Heads Up! Hartford has announced that camp, scheduled for June 19-26, will shift to a virtual structure, as the in-person, overnight format isn't possible due to COVID-19 restrictions. The HUH team is working hard to create virtual activities that will keep the HUH spirit, love, and energy alive. Youth who are graduating from 8th-12th grades are eligible to attend, and there will be no camp fees. Stay tuned for more information! In the meanwhile, please get in touch with Camp Director Julie McGarry with any questions you may have; she can be reached at julie.a.mcgarry@gmail.com or 860-212-5859.

Linda MacGougan, Trinity's liaison, receives emails from Heads Up! Hartford about activities. If you would like her to forward those emails to you, please let her know at macgougans@gmail.com. (Or ask Julie M. to put you on the mailing list.)

HUH is dedicated to creating a summer of memories, service, and love for the HUH family!

Do you have a graduate in your family either from High School or College who you would like to recognize? Please send their name, school from which they are graduating and degree, if you'd like, to Barbara Roos at office@trinityhartford.org by Thursday, May 21. She will make sure that their name appears in the E-Voice, the Voice and the bulletin.

Deadline For The Voice of Trinity Article Submission      Friday – May 15

The deadline for the next issue of The Voice is Friday, May 15, at 5:00 p.m. This issue will cover the Annual Meeting (June 7). Please email your articles to voice@trinityhartford.org. When submitting an article, please be sure to include a title for it.

We always thank GOD for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers.

Virtual Cystic Fibrosis Walk and Challenge: May 16th -June 5th

It's time again for our annual Cystic Fibrosis walk!

Kate and Drew Smith's granddaughter, Sarah, was born with Cystic Fibrosis; she is now 10 years old and doing well. She and her family are sheltering at home in Illinois, as Sarah is a high risk person.

Team Strolling for Sarah does an annual walk (about 3 miles or one hour) to support the Great Strides program which raises research dollars for this genetic lung disease. The exciting news is a new drug, Trikafta, which Sarah will be able to take when she is 12. It will treat some of the causes for her illness and not just the symptoms. Research is important!

This year, instead of our walk in Wickham Park, Team Strolling for Sarah will be doing a "virtual walk", each on our own, anytime between Saturday May 16th and June 5th. We thought it would be fun to see how far we could walk over a 3 week period, so we're going to walk or run more than once. Join in our efforts to see how many miles we all can cover. Send us your information and let us know how far you walked and maybe send us an electronic photo. Together can we reach 650 miles?

The great thing about a virtual walk, is that you can do it any time you like and your walk can also be as short or long as you want! We'll keep you posted on our website below. This is meant to be a fun, free event.

Why through June 5th (6/5) ? Way back in 1965, a little girl overheard her parents talking about the disease. She thought they said "65 roses" instead of cystic fibrosis, which is a mouthful. So the rose has been a symbol of our cause and 6/5 is always the day that the national Cystic Fibrosis Foundation holds its annual celebration. The bake and plant sale has been canceled.

Visit our website : <http://fightcf.cff.org/goto/KateSmith> for more information. Any questions? My email is: Kate48smith@comcast.net or call 860-519-1591.

Thanks so much, Kate and Drew Smith

"Chasing Labyrinths" Now Available

Bill Ludwig's book on the labyrinths of Connecticut and Rhode Island is now available from Hotchkiss Publishing. Trinity's labyrinth, in our Memorial Garden, is among those featured.

Ludwig writes:

You have probably driven by many labyrinths without noticing them. I once walked across one in a church courtyard to ask directions only to be told I had been on it already! Thus the need for a guidebook to help you in your search so you may do a bit less chasing that I did.

Labyrinths have been enjoying a renaissance which began just before the turn of this century with the Lauren Artress Founder of Veriditas leading the way. In 1998 there were only 100 labyrinths listed online, today there are over 4,440 in the US alone. The oldest permanent outdoor labyrinth in Connecticut will be found in Litchfield, at Wisdom House, built in 1996. The increased interest in spirituality, mindfulness, seems to have inspired the growth. They can be viewed as a metaphor for life with twists and turns. They teach us to trust the path we are on is our life's path.

Trinity Church will receive a complementary copy when published in May.

Please Wear Your Mask at Trinity Church

General Israel Putnam dons his mask at Bushnell Park

Shouldn't you do the same?

All visitors, friends, members, guests, and workers on the Trinity Campus or in any of our buildings are reminded to please cover their faces while at Trinity. While worship services are taking place virtually for the time being, the church office and buildings are staffed and work is proceeding on several fronts, indoors and out. For the health and safety of all, and in keeping with the guidance of our bishops and the state of Connecticut, we ask you to keep your mouth and nose covered while you are with us. While a simple cloth mask, scarf, bandana or what-have-you may not protect YOU from virus, it will definitely protect OTHERS from any contagion that you may unknowingly be carrying. Let's continue to love one another from a safe distance.
