 give to us peace in our time, O Lord.
 thou wilt give peace in thy time, O Lord.

Officiant Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

THE INVITATORY AND PSALTER

Officiant Lord, open our lips;

All And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen. Alleluia!

THE INVITATORY: S 41 Jubilate

FIRST LESSON: Genesis 18:1-15

The Lord appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground. He said, “My lord, if I find favor with you, do not pass by your servant. Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant.” So they said, “Do as you have said.” And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, “Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes.” Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

They said to him, “Where is your wife Sarah?” And he said, “There, in the tent.” Then one said, “I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son.” And Sarah was listening at the tent entrance behind him. Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, “After I have grown old, and my husband is old, shall I have pleasure?” The Lord said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, and say, ‘Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?’ Is anything too wonderful for the Lord? At the set time I will return to you, in due season, and Sarah shall have a son.” But Sarah denied, saying, “I did not laugh”; for she was afraid. He said, “Oh yes, you did laugh.”

SECOND LESSON ROMANS 5: 1-8

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Officiant Let us affirm our faith together in the words of the Apostles' Creed.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

BCP p. 96

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth;
 I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
 He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
 He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
 He descended to the dead.
 On the third day he rose again.
 He ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins
 the resurrection of the body,
 and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE PRAYERS

Officiant The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Silence

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

Officiant Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Officiant Almighty God, you have revealed to your Church your eternal Being of glorious majesty and perfect love as one God in Trinity of Persons: Give us grace to continue steadfast in the confession of this faith, and constant in our worship of you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; for you live and reign, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Officiant Almighty God, kindle, we pray, in every heart the true love of peace, and guide with your wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth, that in tranquility your dominion may increase until the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

PRAYER FOR MISSION

Officiant O God, you have made of one blood all the peoples of the earth, and sent your blessed Son to preach peace to those who are far off and to those who are near: Grant that people everywhere may seek after you and find you; bring the nations into your fold; pour out your Spirit upon all flesh; and hasten the coming of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Prayers of the People Form IIIThe Leader and People pray responsively

Leader Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People That we all may be one.

Leader Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
People That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Leader For this transition time at Trinity Church as we engage in the process of discernment leading to the call of a new rector, let us pray to the Lord.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Leader We pray for Donald, our President; Ned, our governor; for all governors and local leaders, for legislative assemblies and courts of law. We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Leader Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Leader For all who live and work in the communities of Central Connecticut, and every community, especially first responders, nurses, doctors, health assistants of every kind, food service workers, delivery people and cleaning staff, those who fulfill online orders and all those on the front lines in the struggle for health and safety during this pandemic. We pray for all those who are ill from the coronavirus, and all those on our parish prayer list, especially Joseph Negrelli. We pray for those who feel isolated, lonely and afraid. Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble,
People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Leader Give to the departed eternal rest, especially those who have died from COVID-19 infection.
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Leader We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy, especially Raymond G. Peterson, II and James F. English, Jr.
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Leader During this pandemic time, COVID-19 reveals anew the consequences of racial injustice through the disproportionate illness and death among marginalized people. At the same time, the senseless violence against people of color continues to reveal the racism plaguing our nation. This week we mourn the death of George Floyd.

In hope that the arc of history bends toward justice, we lift up our prayers for racial healing, saying: Bind us together, O God of love.

Leader For the Church, that its prophetic voice may proclaim to all the challenge to break the hopeless cycles of poverty, ignorance, prejudice, and despair which degrade the sacred dignity of humankind, we pray:
People Bind us together, O God of love.

Leader For our country, that we might celebrate our racial diversity and the distinctive and rich contributions of every fiber of our cultural fabric, we pray:
People Bind us together, O God of love.

Leader For wise and decisive action on the part of local and national leaders, that the scandal of racism may be eradicated from our society, we pray:
People Bind us together, O God of love.

Leader For an end to the subtle racism of economic oppression which permeates our society's structures and resides in many hearts, we pray:
People Bind us together, O God of love.

Leader For our faith communities, that they may not succumb to indifference or accept the status quo, but press on for fundamental change, we pray:

People Bind us together, O God of love.

Leader For the victims of racial discrimination, that they may be filled with hope for a more just future, healing from wounds received, courage to advocate for change and for peace, and the grace to overcome hatred with love, we pray:

People Bind us together, O God of love.

Leader For those who work for racial justice, that they may be sustained in hope, empowered with courage, and filled with the grace to persevere in love, we pray:

People Bind us together, O God of love.

Leader Let us offer our prayers and thanksgivings, either silently or aloud.

Pause for Silence

Leader We give thanks for all those striving to bring health and safety to your beloved children during this pandemic.

Leader We give thanks for the technology which allows us to gather as a community while we must, out of love, be physically apart.

Leader Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through the Spirit of the risen Christ.

All Amen.

Silence

Officiant Let us join together in the words of the General Thanksgiving.

THE GENERAL THANKSGIVING

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made.
We bless you for our creation, preservation,
and all the blessings of this life;
but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;
for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.
And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise,
not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to your service,
and by walking before you
in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.

A PRAYER OF ST. CHRYSOSTOM

Officiant Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting.

All Amen.

Officiant Let us bless the Lord.

We pray for the repose of the souls of homicide victims in our city of Hartford, and beyond. We pray for those who will die this week, that they may meet their Lord in faith and hope. We pray for ourselves and for our departed loved ones, that rejoicing with them in God's kingdom where every tear is wiped away, we may as one family sing praise forever and ever.

From the Interim

A Statement from the Interim Priest-in-Charge of Trinity Church

The video of the callous and brutal murder by a Minneapolis police officer of George Floyd, with his pain, terror and pleading so obvious to see, calls up the images of lynchings as well as bringing to mind the deaths at police hands of so many other African Americans. With the people of Trinity Episcopal Church, and my sisters and brothers throughout our church in every state, I hope and pray that this horrific act and the massive heartfelt demonstrations which have followed will bring forth a spirit of justice and reconciliation. We hope and pray it will bring real change to our fractured nation. We must do all in our power that police officers and all of us will become aware of the racism staining our country from even before its birth, our national original sin. I hope we will do all in our power to make a reality of the ideal that all people are created equal. Now is the time. We commit ourselves in the wake of this horrific death to a "new birth of freedom," in the words of Abraham Lincoln: freedom from discrimination, freedom for people of color to walk the streets, drive their cars, do their shopping without the fear that injury or death may fall on them, or their children, because of the color of their skin. An assault on the life and dignity of any human being is an attack on us all, a betrayal of our common humanity.

In the words this week of the Episcopal Bishops of Connecticut, "The injustice against people of color we have seen in recent weeks is not tolerable. It is contrary to the will of God and our Christian witness. We must speak up. We must work for change. And we must repent for the ways we are complicit in the ongoing violence in our society. We do this work together. We do this work for God. And we do this work so that all God's people may know safety, hope, and love."

The Warden's Corner

A message from our newly elected Warden, Tom Oberholtzer

To the Trinity Parish June 7, 2020

It is my distinct pleasure to join Martha Freimuth in assuming the Wardenship for Trinity Church for the next year. Trinity has been Enid's and my home for the last 20 years, and we continue to be blessed to be in your company. I continue to be overwhelmed by the number of truly bright, energetic, and capable parishioners who, on a daily basis, define where we are and what we do as faithful Christians. There are some challenging times ahead of us, to say the least. I am confident that as we proactively address our role in the greater Hartford faith community, we will meet those challenges head on, and help to ensure a bright future for our Trinity. I thank you for entrusting me with a role in support of that future.

Faithfully,
Tom Oberholtzer, Warden

We need your input!

You will receive a communication from Trinity Church via Constant Contact in the next day or so that will contain a very brief survey from the Task Force on Re-gathering. It is important for the Task Force to understand at the outset how the members of Trinity Church are thinking and feeling about returning to in-person worship.

Thank you for taking the time to share your thoughts with us!

Bible Study via Zoom,
Tuesdays at 5:15 PM

Thank you to all who responded!
We meet on Tuesdays, at 5:15 pm.

There is room for more at our Trinity Bible study through Zoom!

We will use a cool approach created by folks at Yale specifically for parishes, and requiring no previous academic study. You can check it out at www.yalebiblestudy.org. (Please do! It's pretty interesting.) Each meeting starts with a conversational introduction to the subject from two faculty members, then offers discussion questions, and options for further reading. I find the curriculum both accessible and flexible. We can do as much or as little as we like with each session. It's up to us to use it in a way that works for us.

To enroll please send me an email or call me, Roy McAlpine, at rmcalpine.comcast.net, or by phone at (860) 338-4525.

Free Summer Camp for Kids

Summer is nearly here, and Charter Oak Cultural Center is so happy to be able to offer a wide variety of FREE virtual summer camps for children ages 6-18. We are offering classes in music, art, dance, creative writing, and more!

Virtual summer camps will allow us to offer the same fun, high-quality arts education while also safely social distancing. Camp classes will be daily 90-minute sessions that run for one week, Monday to Friday. Classes will be taught by Charter Oak's wonderful staff of teaching artists, and will take place through the online video chat service Zoom. Zoom links to classes will be provided when registration is confirmed.

The full schedule of camp classes is included in the attached registration sheet below.

Linda MacGougan, Trinity's liaison, receives emails from Heads Up! Hartford about activities. If you would like her to forward those emails to you, please let her know at macgougans@gmail.com. (Or ask Camp Director Julie McGarry (contact below) to put you on the mailing list.)

Heads Up! Hartford has announced that camp will shift to a virtual structure, as the in-person, overnight format isn't possible due to COVID-19 restrictions. The HUH team is working hard to create virtual activities that will keep the HUH spirit, love, and energy alive. Youth who are graduating from 8th-12th grades are eligible to attend, and there will be no camp fees. Stay tuned for more information! In the meanwhile if you have questions, please get in touch with Camp Director Julie McGarry at julie.a.mcgarry@gmail.com or 860-212-5859 or Briannon Chester, HUH Assistant Director at bnchester3@hotmail.com or (860) 338-6282.

This year, our camp theme is "Many Voices, One Mission." We will focus our programming on centering marginalized voices, and we hope you will join us. You can learn about this year's camp details here.

Camp will be in session from Monday, June 22nd to Friday, June 26th, with a two-hour commitment every evening. These two hours, which we are calling, the "Main Events", will take place from 7pm-9pm. This segment will include several of our amazing and beloved traditional camp activities, such as blue room guest speakers, team time, music, opportunities to engage in service work, God moments, and worship!

We hope that you will consider joining us and continue to help spread the word about camp!

Campers may register at the link below. We can't wait to see you at camp 2020!

Transition to Eternal Life

With great sorrow Trinity Church announces the death of a long-time member, James F. English, Jr., who entered into rest June 2, 2020. Jim made the long table in the little narthex as you come from Goodwin Hall.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Jim's family and all who knew and loved him, especially his sister-in-law, Katie Reynolds. Together with them we mourn his death and give thanks for his life among us.

A memorial service is planned at a later date.

Father of all, we pray to you for James, and for all those whom we love but see no longer. Grant to them eternal rest. Let light perpetual shine upon them. May his soul and the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Visit the Trinity Memorial Garden

With deep appreciation for Enid Oberholtzer and Erica Weinstock and their team of volunteers, we are happy to announce the phased re-opening of Trinity's Memorial Garden.

Beginning this Tuesday, June 16, from 9 through 11 AM, and continuing at those hours each Tuesday and Thursday (weather permitting), Enid and Erica will open the garden gate on Sigourney Street. Members and friends of Trinity and our Asylum Hill neighbors are welcome to enjoy the beauty and peace of the garden, its flowers, its fountain, and its labyrinth. All visitors are expected to wear masks (one will be provided if you forget yours!) and maintain proper social distancing.

This is the beginning of our slow and careful re-opening of the Trinity Church campus. At the point only the garden may be accessed, and only from Sigourney Street, and only at the stated hours. The memorial garden is being made available as a blessing to all and as a sign of hope for better days to come.

We always thank GOD for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers.

Prayer Requests

Although we are not physically in the church, we can continue to take prayer requests and put them in our Sunday leaflet. Please contact Barbara Roos at office@trinityhartford.org with any names you would like added.

A Prayer for this time of Pandemic

We pray guided by the words of the Psalm 46:

Compassionate, Comforting, Empowering God, you are our refuge and strength, a very present help in times of trouble. Amid the turmoil in the world, your love is steadfast and your strength never fails. We pray for those infected by COVID-19. We remember especially healthcare workers, first responders, persons in isolation and those who grieve the loss of their loved ones.

Your love is steadfast and your strength never fails.

Merciful God, grant order to the chaos of our racing minds and our pounding hearts. We remember especially those who are overwhelmed by the uncertainty, in particular those most vulnerable because of preexisting health conditions, and those who have lost, or will lose, their jobs.

Your love is steadfast and your strength never fails.

Compassionate God, grant courage and hope in the wake of this unprecedented path as we navigate and re-navigate our lives in this global crisis. We remember especially elected government officials, educational administrators, religious leaders and all policy-makers who are expected to offer decisive leadership in this time of crisis. We remember the medical scientists and researchers who are working assiduously to develop a vaccine or treatment.

Your love is steadfast and your strength never fails.

Empower us to be open to your unfolding purposes even as the waters around us roar and foam.

Reassure us of your divine presence and peace with us, now and always.

Amen!

Prayer by Deonie Duncan, an ordained Baptist minister from Jamaica.

Please Wear Your Mask at Trinity Church

General Israel Putnam dons his mask at Bushnell Park
Shouldn't you do the same?

All visitors, friends, members, guests, and workers on the Trinity Campus or in any of our buildings are reminded to please cover their faces while at Trinity. While worship services are taking place virtually for the time being, the church office and buildings are staffed and work is proceeding on several fronts, indoors and out. For the health and safety of all, and in keeping with the guidance of our bishops and the state of Connecticut, we ask you to keep your mouth and nose covered while you are with us. While a simple cloth mask, scarf, bandana or what-have-you may not protect YOU from virus, it will definitely protect OTHERS from any contagion that you may unknowingly be carrying. Let's continue to love one another from a safe distance.
